Dedication

To A Respected Educator, Coach

The Senior Class, along with the Clintonia staff, dedicates the 1978 yearbook to a fine coach and superior educator. In his 14 years at Clinton Community High School, Mr. Austin has tried to bring respectability to the word "Maroon" both as a coach and as a school booster in the community.

He has been active as the "Golden Voice" of athletic events, whereby he supports the teams even though he is not directly involved as a coach.

This year he has taken on the role of being coach for the Maroon girl's basketball team, something that was new to him. Although new, he coached the girls to an excellent season.

In class, he gives his students high standards, and as a result, high standards are achieved by those who have taken him for class.

But there is another side to Mr. Austin. He is warm and caring and has a wit and sense of humor that can rarely be matched. His now famous "hunting stories" and his entertaining comments during the powder puff games vividly show the other side of Mr. Austin.

To our own six-million dollar man, we dedicate this book and the memories you have given the class of 1978.

A Rounding Up

Spirit Week began the week before Spirit Week. It began with the traditional kickoff of the powder puff football game, which was scheduled the Thursday before Homecoming Week. The match-up pitted the Birbeck Tech Rams against the Lane University Tigers. The Rams were made up of female sophomores and

The freshmen took part in "Spirit Week" by constructing their first float. The "target" of their work was the Morton Potters.

Powder Puff had more pow than puff. The event saw the largest turnout of fans for the annual contest. The girls didn't let the fans down, as the high scoring game saw the Rams beat the Tigers 21-7.

of "Spirit Week"

juniors while the Tigers were freshmen and seniors. Mr. Austin called the game (commented and joked) while an estimated crowd of 750 viewed the gridiron girls. The Rams outlasted the Tigers in a game that ended 21-7.

Spirit excelerated with "Hat and Tie Day" "50's Day" "Clash Day" and the traditional "Maroon and Gold Day".

Assemblies were held, the snake dance slithered through town, and the bonfire ignited the crisp fall air.

The Queen candidates were announced to the student body and posters filled the halls, buttons were worn, gum was snaped, and baloons were filled—all to get out the vote for the one who was to be Homecoming Queen.

When the girls took to the gridiron, the boys took the roles of the girls (and even some of their clothes). The balloons helped the fans cheer louder.

Floats were constructed with hard work, late hours and several midnight "egg" snacks. All the floats were completed on time for a beautiful fall day parade.

Queen candidates added their own kind of spirit to the week's events. The court, made up of five beautiful senior girls, included Machellee Gee, Toni Thompson, Kathy Merz, Joye Sprague, and Tracie O'Neill.

Junior first place float: "Spill Morton."

Senior fourth place float: "Victory Delight."

Around the Square

The 1977 Homecoming Parade started off with a clear sky and warm fall weather on October 14 at 3:00. At the beginning of the parade were the Junior High cheerleaders and pom-pon squad. As the parade came around the square it unfurled floats, cars, queen candidates, the past Homecoming Queen, Andrea Cook, the high school band and pom-pon squad.

Organizations and athletes who were represented included the National Honor Society, the Cross Country Team, Freshman Football Team, Volleyball Team, cheerleaders and Varsity Football Team.

Floats were constructed by all four classes. "Victory Delight," the senior float, took fourth place. The freshmen float "On Target" took third. The second place float was the sophomore offering of "Ring Up A Victory". The float receiving the first place award was the junior masterpiece "Spill Morton". For their efforts, the juniors walked away with the $100 first place prize.

The cheerleaders wore the traditional homecoming flower—the mum—but they weren't as mum as the flowers.

Freshmen third place float: "On Target."

Sophomore second place float: "Ring Up A Victory."

HOMECOMING

Prom Court member, Machelle Gee, was part of the beauty and pagentry of the Homecoming Parade.

Toni Thompson, who was later crowned queen, said she enjoyed the parade part of her week the best.

Tracie O'Neill loved being part of the parade as part of the Homecoming Court.

Just getting ready to take part in the parade is Kathy Merz.

Joye Sprague finished the regal line of court members as the parade took a final turn around the square.

The award winning "M Squad" paced the parade around the town square. The high Step-pin' girls displayed their new name to the public for the first time during Homecoming Week.

Maroons Lose All Three to Morton Potters

The Maroons dropped all three homecoming matches to the Morton Potters.

In the freshman game the Potters scored four times while the Maroons managed only one touchdown. The only score came on a brilliant 69 yard run by Doug Sturgeon in the second quarter. The freshman game ended in a 28-6 romp.

The varsity didn't fair any better in their match with Morton as the team lost 27-7. Clinton's only spirit came in the fourth quarter when Rick Parker lead the team 50 yards down the field in five plays. John Werts scored the Maroon's only touchdown.

The sophomore team came close to giving Clintonites one victory during homecoming. The Maroons lost 28-24 in a game that saw Clinton fight back but come up short in one of the finest offensive games played by the sophomores all year. Tim Green lead the attack with 108 yards passing in the game while Jeff Bruner and Doug Sturgeon each had 77 yards rushing.

The Maroon Marching Band created the mood for the Homecoming Parade as they played the school fight song as they marched.

Varsity footballers got a free ride in the traditional way. The red fire truck gave a colorful backdrop to the maroon and gold worn by the gridders.

The "Queen's Dance" was started by Toni Thompson and her escort, then followed by the Homecoming Court.

The Queen received a heart-shaped locket. The colors were red, orange, yellow and green. The dance was "A Wind of Change." It was all part of the week which began with female gridders and now was about to end. The dance. It was a special time—it was a special mood—and there were special people to remember. Scattered autumn leaves surrounded the commons walls. Orange streamers seemed to float in mid air. And the Queen danced. The Court joined the royal couple, then all began to dance. For some, it was their first dance; for some, their last. But for all, it was a special time.

HOMECOMING DANCE

"A Wind Of Change"

The band gave everyone a chance to occasionally find their partners.

Most Clintonites enjoyed the fast pace of the music and the refreshments afterward.

Some simply enjoyed talking to friends during the lengthy breaks the band took.

Music for the dance was provided by Blues-Bird, a group originally from Champaign.

This year a total of twenty-four girls competed for Homecoming Queen. A run-off ballot narrowed the field to five girls. Then, at a school assembly, ballots for Queen were taken. During halftime of the Homecoming game, Toni Thompson was crowned the 1978 Homecoming Queen.

Supporting cast for the Death and Life of Sneaky Fitch were (the women-folk in the back row) Debi Summers, Julie Weaver, and Diane Haas. The men-folk (the hams in the front row) were played by Gene Blue, Bill Wright, Rick Dalton, Doug Baker and Neal Malone.

Thespian Fall Production Took Us Around to The Wild, Wild West

The setting was a mythical western town, Golpher Gulch. Sneaky Fitch, played by Chris Hartsock, was the mythical villain. The fall production of the play the Death and Life of Sneaky Fitch was presented to the public on November 18 and 19 and was more than a mythical melodrama. The setting, cast performances, direction, lighting and mood made the mythical into reality for the Clinton audience.

Before near capacity audiences, the play presented the town bum, Sneaky, as the only character in the town who mars the perfect life of Golpher Gulch. In the end, it was Sneaky who reformed just as he died.

Outstanding supporting characters included Rackham, played by Neal Malone; Jack Oglesby, played by Gene Blue; Jeff Calvert, who acted as narrator; and Doc Burch, played by Todd O'Neill.

One cast member, Julie Weaver, took ill just before the play was to open. Val Donnan, student director, took up the role of Maroon, which had been Weaver's part. Val did a fine job in the part even though she had only four days to prepare the role.

Mrs. D. Ann Jones directed the play along with her student teacher Mr. Phillip Jordon.

Adding to part of the western setting is Julie Weaver, who did not perform in the play because she was taken ill with the mumps. Val Donnan took her place during the two nights of the performance.

Just shooting the breeze with Julie Weaver (the one in the sheep dip) are the .44 caliber actors Chris Hartsock, Neal Malone, Jeff Calvert, and Gene Blue.

The town-folk of Gopher Gulch helped to nail Sneaky Fitch into a coffin for good. Seated on that coffin are Jeff Calvert, Doug Baker, Lisa Eccles, Joy Harmon and Roger Burton.

On November 22, the Charles Evans chapter of the National Honor Society inducted seven senior students to its organization. Receiving this high honor were Eric Calhoon, Joye Sprague, Robyn Thayer, Chuck Jost, Marge Stroud, Lisa Eccles and Jeff Kartawich. The newly electies were chosen on a point system covering such activities in the areas of character, scholarship, leadership and service. The high school music department also contributed to the ceremony by the chorus' "Lord God of Sabbath" directed by Mrs. Noth and accompanied by Lisa Miller. Following the inductor ceremony, members were treated to a luncheon at the Open Hearth Restaurant.

President Randy Pound gives the list of qualifications for being inducted in the National Honor Society.

Eric Calhoon, Chuck Jost, Joye Sprague, Marge Stroud, Lisa Eccles, Jeff Kartawich, and Robyn Thayer hold their newly-earned white carnations as they begin fresh and blooming career in National Honor Society.

Receiving his stole of honor given by Robin Burris is Jeff Kartawich.

Honor Society Fall Induction

The school chorus, directed by Fern Noth, sang "Lord God of Sabbath" in the opening ceremony.

The central torch, lit by Debbie Brady, stands for the light that member of the National Honor Society are to shed on the world.

As a symbol of spreading light, candles were lit in a chain of unity as shown here by Marti Baker and Lisa Eccles.

Cupids in the Clouds

1978 Sweetheart Dance

Candidates were presented to the student body on February 1. Left to right around the circle: Diane Vermillion, Marge Stroud, Missy Westray, Robin Thayer, Ann Hubbell, Charlotte Hanson, Laurie

Bryant, Julie Roberts, Nancy Wilson, Becky Mason, Fadra Owens, Laurie Steward, Dodee Junkert, Melissa Spaugh, and Debbie Riegal.

FHA candidates are Robyn Thayer and Ann Hubbell.

Girls Asked the Guys— If They Got Around to It

The Future Homemakers of America held their annual Sweetheart Dance on February 4 in the CCHS commons. The theme for the dance was "Cupids in the Clouds" with tickets priced at $5.50 a couple.

At the entrance to the commons, a white-pomp arch was placed which each couple would pass through. Decorations included a large red heart suspended from the ceiling and various "cupids in the clouds" were attached to the walls. On each table, there were fold-out hearts on top of white tablecloths.

Attending the Sweetheart Dance were 150 couples consisting of CCHS students and guests.

Refreshments for the dance were provided and served by the Food Service class and the music, basically from the 50's and 60's, was played by Tobias.

Junior candidates—Nancy Wilson, Julie Roberts, and Laurie Bryant.

Sophomore candidates—Becky Mason, Laurie Steward, and Fadra Owens.

Senior candidate Diane Vermillion with escort Doug Adkins.

Freshman candidate—Dodee Junkert, Melissa Spaugh, and Debbie Riegal.

The dance was enjoyed by many students at CCHS.

Sara Graves, Chad Hudson

Music was provided by Tobias for the dance.

Sweetheart queens and escorts are—Robbie Shannon, Dodee Junkert, Scott Reinhart, Becky Mason, Ron Gordon, Barb Volker, Robyn Thayer, Sara Graves, Chad Hudson, Scott Spellman, Charlotte Hanson, Bill Carson, Missy Westray, Dan Smith, Laurie Bryant, Jay Metzger.

Freshman Candidates—Melissa Spaugh, escort Roger Laramée; Sweetheart Dodee Junkert, escort Robbie Shannon; Debbie Riegal, escort Steve Thompson.

Thayer—FHA Sweetheart

Coronation

At 9:30 p.m. the couples moved into the auditorium to watch the crowning. Fifteen anxious girls waited to hear their names called out. Chosen queens included Missy Westray, senior; Laurie Bryant, junior; Becky Mason, sophomore; Dodee Junkert, freshman; Robyn Thayer, FHA; and Charlotte Hanson, honorary sweetheart. The sweetheart queens were awarded roses and carnations from the FHA.

Hanson—Honorary Sweetheart

Junior Candidates—Nancy Wilson, escort Chris Junkert; Sweetheart Laurie Bryant, escort Jay Metzger; Julie Roberts, escort Paul Wade.

Senior Candidates—Marge Stroud, escort Randy Pound; Sweetheart Missy Westray, escort Dan Smith; Diane Vermillion, escort Steve Aughenbough.

Rehearsals

Rehearsals aren't all fun as Machellee Gee and Brett Miller listen to careful advice from the director.

Gene Blue needs all the practice he can get.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Noth discuss one of the scenes.

The town's local drunk (Greg Miller) had one too many again.

Guys and Dolls You Could Bet the Spring Musical Was More Than an Odds on Favorite

On April 21, 22, and 23, Clinton High School Thespians presented their version of "Guys and Dolls". Over 100 CCHS students participated in the spring musical under the direction of D. Ann Jones. The story takes place in New York City near Times Square. Nathan Detroit operates a floating crap game and needs $1000 to get a place. Miss Adelaide, his fiancée of 14 years, wants him to stop gambling and marry her, but Nathan won't go for it. A compulsive better, Sky Masterson, is passing through town, and Nathan sees his chance to earn that $1000. He bets Sky that he (Nathan) can name a "doll" who will not go with Sky to Havana. Sky is confident of himself in women so he accepts. Nathan names Miss Sarah Brown, in charge of the Save-A-Soul Mission. Much to Nathan's surprise, Miss Brown accepts. However Nathan receives his $1000 since Sky marries Sarah Brown. The story ends with the marriage of Nathan Detroit and Miss Adelaide.

Playbill

Sky Masterson: Chris Hartsock
Nathan Detroit: Brett Miller
Miss Adelaide: Machele Gee
Nicely-Nicely Johnson: Gene Blue
Benny Southstreet: Mike Crutcher
Rusty Charlie: Todd O'Neill
Sarah Brown: Sheila Dyer
Arvide Abernathy: Roger Massey
Harry the Horse: Jeff Calvert
Lt. Brannigan: Bart Miller
General Cartwright: Kris Emling
Big Jule: Eric Calhoun

Miss Adelaide laments much to Nathan's despair.

PROM

We May Never Pass This Way Again
May 6, 1978

Royalty

Last year's Prom Queen, Teresa Stone, was escorted by Jeff Hickman, and returned to crown the new queen of the 1978 Prom. Jodee Woodman, escorted by Fred Bruner, was crowned by Miss Stone in the usual Prom ceremony.

The annual Junior-Senior Prom was held on May 6 from 8:00 to 11:00 at Clinton High School. The theme of the Prom was "We May Never Pass This Way Again".

The Junior Class hired the "Mason Brothers" to play their brand of slow music for the 98 couples who attended the Prom. The decorations were all in pastel colors with rainbow streamers flowing from the ceiling. Refreshments were cookies and punch with the new idea of having a four teared cake. Jodee Woodman was crowned Queen of the Prom.

After-Prom was held at Martin's Auction House from 12:00 to 4:00. The band, "Strangers," played while the prom-goers ate pizza catered by Monical's. There was plenty to eat and drink for everyone.

Coach Steve Hagenbruch presented Randy Pound with MVP and Brett Miller with the 110% award in football.

Fall Sports Banquet

Greg Goodman, captain of the Golf team, received the Most Valuable Player award from coach Tom Gramkow.

Tim Quinn presented the Most Valuable Team Member award to Jim Harrold.

Awards given to the Cross Country team were received by Lee Luckey—Rookie of the Year, Jim Harrold—MVTM, David Quinn—Most Improved Runner, and Chuck Day—Top Runner of the Year.

Coach MacNamee and Kay Belangee are shown with the PMA banner.

J.D. Cooper, shown here with coaches Munds and Milton, captured the MVP, Most Improved, and Most Pins awards.

Spring

Machelle Gee and Marti Baker were awarded the Most Valuable Player award for JV volleyball.

Sas Spencer received the Most Valuable Player award for girls basketball.

Banquet

Mr. Overturf, coach of the freshman basketball, presented the awards to the team.

Senior Class Trip

Knowing Where to Go Is Part of Getting Around

Rothbury, Michigan doesn't seem like one of the more likely places to find a group of Clinton Seniors. But the Seniors know how to get around. On May 23, fun in the sun was the goal of 37 seniors. 1,000 acres of beautiful country awaited the travelers as they left for the Double J Ranch. Horseback riding, swimming, fishing, and breakfast on the trail were only a small part of the two day trip.

Mr. Vanderkloot and Mrs. Coan were the watchful teachers who tagged along for the ride. Tom Pruser did most of the organizational work.

Long walks along the trail were part of getting away from final exams, underclassmen, and dirty lockers.

Senior Travelers

Just outside one of the lodges the group of merry travelers take a small repose before going back to the fun and games at the Double J Ranch. The seniors left for the ranch at midnight on the 23rd, and the yearbook editors caught most of the group in this picture before they fell asleep.

Rub-a-dub-dub. They didn't catch anything but rays.

WHAT'S THIS?

You guessed it. No matter where the seniors go, they always bring along the senior bench. The class trip was no exception.

Graduation

May 26, 1978

Welcome

By Sherry Wagner

"Administrators, teachers, families, fellow graduates. Tonight is a culmination of four years of tears and laughter, work and fun, and failures and successes.

But we haven't made it alone.

Parents and teachers have shared with us, not only the triumph at times, but also our burdens as well.

Administrators have shared their time, efforts and knowledge to provide us with the best education possible.

We, the class of 1978, wish for you to share in our last high school memory . . . WELCOME to the 1978 commencement exercises."

Senior Class Vice President, Sherry Wagner, welcomes everyone to the 1978 commencement exercises.

School Board members and district administrators were invited to the commencement exercises. Mr. Gary Archey, Superintendent, presented the Class of 1978, and Mr. Carl Troxel, Board President, awarded the graduates with their diplomas.

Senior Chorus

The senior Chorus performed twice, both times under the direction of Mrs. Fern Noth with the accompaniment of Mrs. Ralph Karr. Their first performance was May 21 at the Baccalaureate service where they sang "You'll Never Walk Alone". Graduation was the setting for their second performance. They captured the audience with "The Times of Your Life".

Jeff Rasor, senior class president, addressed the graduating class with a speech covering the events during the four years of high school at Clinton.

Student Government Brings Activities and Entertainment to CCHS

CCHS students enjoyed the special events Student Council has provided the past year under the direction of Mr. Stuart Coon. This year's officers succeeded in two successful assemblies put on by circus-oriented college students from ISU, and a rock and roll band titled 'Free Wheelin'. Other activities involving the student body were the sale of Friendship Letters and color-coded carnations. Clinton's first Holiday Dance was held in December and the council sponsored the annual Spring Fever Carnival that thrived on student participation.

Pronto Pups, a favorite of the day, were served by the National Honor Society.

Students get revenge at the dart throwing booth.

Instrumental music captured the attention of the audience.

Have your own design put on a silk screen T-shirt.

The annual French club carnival was sponsored by Student Council this year, and renamed "Spring Fling". It was held on April 5 with many clubs participating. Various foods and drinks were sold along with T-shirts and year-book pictures. Raffling for class T-shirts, record albums, and a wicker chair also took place. Entertainment was provided by the Jazz Band.

Free Wheelin, a rock and roll band from Champaign, Ill., managed to entertain CHS students in the evening of April 4. Due to the power failures during the day they were unable to perform at an assembly scheduled for earlier that day. Student Council also arranged for this exciting event.

Student Council sponsored CHS students with an assembly performed by the Act One Company from California provided by the First Christian Church. Their act consisted of comedy, music and drama.

'You Light Up My Life'—sung by a member of the Act One Co.

National Honor Society

Induction into National Honor Society is one of the greatest honors a high school student can receive. In order to be eligible a student must have a "B" average. In Clinton's Charles Evans chapter, a student may first be eligible the second semester of his junior year. Each eligible person is rated on all points, each one who meets the requirements is inducted. Activities of the '77-78' group included, tutoring, law day, and selling corn dogs on Spring Fever Day.

National Honor Society Has Top 8

The method of determining class rank for the 1978 graduates changed after their junior year from a weighted rank, favoring college-preparatory subjects (A equaling 4.0). A perfect grade record of all A's on this combined would be around 5.5.

Clintonia "We Get Around" Editors

The 1977-78 yearbook staff had a successful year. In the fall the club had one of its two biggest money making projects—selling ads to the local businesses. The other project was the actual selling of the yearbook which was done in December and January. The Putting together of the annual involved many, many hours of sincere work and devotion by the Clintonia staff with cooperation from faculty and students. Without these elements this yearbook would have never been produced. The staff consisted of eight people, under the guidance of Mr. Jungblut. We learned how to edit the book, think up new ideas, worked with those ideas, and of course, we learned how to "get around".

Excalibur Kept Us Informed

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, and the new student publication, the Excalibur, was there to cover it. Under the advisership of Mr. Joseph A. Jungblut, the new publication began to cover the times as students saw it. In the process, the Excalibur won claim for itself as they entered the world of contests and competition with high schools around the state and around the country.

Publications awards were won at Evansville University for news, editorial, and layout and design. Along with that, it received second place overall. At Northern Illinois University, the publication took five of six first place "Blue Ribbon" awards for writing.

On the national scene, Quill and Scroll honored Debi Summers with a national writing award. Columbia University gave the Excalibur a second place rating, and the National Scholastic Press Association gave them a first place rating.

In all, the first year of the Excalibur netted 10 writing awards and two national ratings.

A Place of Involvement

F.H.A. officers are Lauri Long, vice president; Ann Hubbell, president; Julie Harpenau, secretary-treasurer; and Kris Emling, degree, who is not pictured.

The goal and purpose of the F.H.A. organization is to help youth assume their roles in society through home economics education in areas of personal growth, family life, vocational preparation and community involvement. The club had a very busy year involving such projects as a fall weiner roast, holding the Section 4-C rally here at Clinton, a chili supper with F.F.A., having an "awards night", installing new officers, and sponsoring the Sweetheart Dance.

Future Farmers of America

FFA celebrated their 50th Anniversary by holding the traditional "zoo" held in the shop area, and by going to the third grade classes to distribute agricultural information. They also had their annual tractor display held during National FFA Week.

Around the Stage, They're the Best

Troupe 3151 of the International Thespian Society was chartered in 1975 with 10 initiates. Thespians is an honorary dramatic fraternity dedicated to the advancement of the performing arts. Students are eligible for membership after earning ten points by working in at least two major productions. Participation involves various areas of play production, not only performance but committee work as well. Each point represents ten hours of excellent workmanship. Troupe 3151 annually produces one full length play in the fall, a musical in the spring and sponsors a children's play presented at each area grade school. The sponsor of the troupe is D. Ann Jones.

Arguing Around The Point

A new organization was started this year at CCHS. Miss Debbie Sullivan, during her first year of teaching here, started and coached Clinton's first debate team. Activities included traveling to Glenbrook North High School for their first tournament, and during education week they appeared on cable TV. One asset for the club was that students were give class credit for participating.

Clinton had three major bands during the '77-78 school year. They were the Concert Band (above), the Pep Band (below), and the Jazz-Band (next page). The Concert Band held a Christmas concert open to the public. The Pep Band kept busy performing at home Varsity basketball games and many home games. The band, under the direction of Mr. Edgar Collar, did a fine job.

Pep Band members are—Row 1: Lisa Prather, Treasa Torbert, Lisa Backs, Melissa Spaugh, Mary Jane Jackson, Sheryl McCubbins, Susie Thomason, Della Adams, Janice Martin. Adding texture to the mosaic of school life, the C.H.S. Jazz Band, along with pep band, cemented together the student body's enthusiasm and spirit. The Jazz Band held a Coffee House on Dec. 2. They performed for their audience and refreshments were served by the Band Boosters. Attending a Jazz Band Festival added to the groups excitement. One February 4, they traveled to Oak Lawn, Illinois to compete with nearly one hundred other groups. They returned to Clinton with an "Excellent" Rating.

Chorus

The Clinton High School Concert Choir, directed by Fern Noth, had a variety of programs this year. Their first program, entitled Fall Choir Follies, had a mixture of Blue Grass-Country Music, and a selection of highlights from the Broadway musical "Annie". Other programs include a Christmas concert, working on the spring musical and Time Line, the spring show. The highlight of the year was a musical production of "Winnie the Pooh". The chorus presented the musical to the grade schools in the area and one school out of town.

The 'M' Squad

The CCHS pom-pom squad, under the direction of Mrs. Marjorie Devore, has been kept very active between half-time performances, an appearance at Millikin, several clinics and changing their name from last years 'Pepperettes' to The 'M' Squad. Try-outs were held in April of '77 so the girls were able to learn routines in a specific summer camp. Eight girls attended the American Scholastic Drill Team Association Workshop at the U of I; receiving two second place ribbons and an honorable mention. Ten other girls participated in the Drill Team World Camp at Ill. Wesleyan University to bring back two trophies and a total of fourteen ribbons.

Other volunteer projects included performances at the JV games, and girls basketball games, and sponsoring a Saturday morning clinic for first through eighth grade girls.

Top Notch

Four members of 'The M Squad' ventured to Peoria to attend Richmond's Royalettes Pom Pon Clinic, and succeeded in bringing home another first place trophy after an outstanding performance. The girls who represented Clinton, Terrie Heyen, Lou Ann Gregory, Kari Sommers, and Debbie Riegel, competed against other squads with an average of 18 to 20 girls.

Debbie Riegel displays another first-place trophy.

Squad captain: Lisa Kent.

Marcia Taylor and Dana Thompson lead the squad in the Homecoming Parade.

Varsity Cheerleading Squad

The CHS cheerleading team, made up of three squads, was composed of eighteen girls. Under the direction of Miss Debbie Sullivan, and acting in leadership for the CHS student body, the cheerleaders were responsible for planning pep assemblies, perfecting new cheers, and promoting school spirit. Each of the three squads attended a summer camp, and all three returned home with a spirit award! Eight of the members formed the Varsity Squad. They were honored by qualifying for state competition. In Peoria, the CHS squad competed against twenty-five other schools and returned home as seventh in the state.

A Round Pie in The Face

An annual event, bent on spoiling the basketball team, is Guardian Angel Week, sponsored by the cheerleaders. Anonymously, each player receives small gifts that include food, candy, notes, flowers and creative surprises for a weeks length. At the end of the week, he is required to take a wild guess as to who the identity of his angel is, and if his guess proves correct, he gets the thrill of throwing a cream pie in his angels face . . . Should his guess not be so lucky, the Guardian Angel strikes back.

We Got Around One But Not the Others

Clinton's first victory was also their last. In their first game of the season the Maroons won over Dunlap, 28-0. Clinton scored early when quarterback Rick Parker rushed for a touchdown and Marc Rockhold made the extra point. The Maroons defense, which played a major part in the game, was led by Jeff Bell and Al Laramie with 3 solo tackles each. Although this game was their only victory, Clinton played hard throughout the season and provided tough competition for their rivals.

We Had Pride And Showed It Against The Best

Some games were tougher than others. When the rains came during the U-High game, it took pride to play a good team under adverse conditions. It took pride to play before a sparse crowd and at their field. Clinton showed that pride and a never-give-up attitude in that game as well as other matches where the conditions were not perfect. U-High won the game that Friday night in September, but Clinton showed them what pride was all about.

A water-covered field provided slippery footing as John Werts carried the ball for Clinton in the U-High game. The varsity lost the match-up 22-8.

The future greatness of the Maroons is in the ability of the underclassmen. The sophomore and freshmen teams gained a great deal of experience against tough competition. Many of the players were on the line-ups of both teams, and although the scores don't show it, future varsity teams will be soaring with victories because of the experienced underclassmen.

Greg Goodman

He Almost Got Around To Playing At State

He almost played at state. Greg Goodman had a chance to beat the averages and go to the state tournament held in Springfield. But his chances died at the sectional tournament.

Throughout the long golf season, Goodman was a consistent medalist. The scores were some of the best in the Heart of Illinois conference. It was no surprise to anyone when he came away with a spot in the sectional tournament.

At the district tournament, which qualified him for sectionals, Goodman shot 76 for the 18 hole course at Scovil in Decatur. The leader at districts was Doug Coon from Decatur Eisenhower who shot a 69. The competition was tough, but Goodman was ready for it.

Goodman practiced all summer, according to his coach. He practised with one thing in mind—to have a chance to play in the state tournament.

The sectionals came in mid October. Goodman was ready. There were 64 golfers ready to tee off, all with the hope of gaining one of the seven spots on the docket for state.

When the last shot was made, and the final putt was recorded, Goodman was eight out of the field of 64. He had shot a 78 and to qualify for state you had to have a 77.

Matt Hearon, a fellow teammate of Goodman's, made this comment: "He seems to take a lot of pride in his golf game, and I hope his name will someday be among the pros."

More Than Just Back-Up

The 1977 golf team had three outstanding players. Two team members tended to be overlooked because of Greg Goodman's fine play. Tom Douin and Chris Junkert were the two-three punch of the team and were more than just back-up for the number one player. Douin was second man on the team and carried a 42.9 average for nine holes. His scores were consistent and helped push Goodman into medalist in several matches.

The other golfer was Chris Junkert. Junkert, in his third year on the team, usually followed close behind Douin's scores. These three linkmen made the year a success, and with youth coming back, the future looks bright.

It Takes Guts to Run and Win

Being a cross country runner is not as easy as it may seem. It takes approximately three months for someone who has never run long distances just to get in shape. A runner must then practice regularly to keep in shape. Practices usually consist of warming up, then running four to ten miles at the same pace. Runners compete in almost all weather conditions. Although a few new recruits drop out, most cross country runners stick with it. Being a cross country runner is a source of pride because it takes endurance, time, and self-discipline just to finish.

Turning Around Defeat With PMA

One new feature in volleyball this year was the introduction of PMA or Positive Mental Attitude to the team. The idea was started by Coach MacNamee, who learned about it from her brother-in-law. PMA basically consists of having a good attitude about yourself and your ability. Both the Varsity and Jr. Varsity team must have put PMA to use, because their win-loss record improved over last year's. PMA is used not only in volleyball and other sports, but also in other aspects of life.

Rounding Up the Championship

The girls basketball team won the Heart of Illinois Conference Game. The game was played against Morton, with the final score being 64-62, that made their record 16-0. The girls enjoyed a good season and their favorite expression often voiced was, "Turn the horses out of the barn and let them run."

Seniors Carol McGarry, Debbie Brady, and Nancy Lane were the Tri-captains for the season.

Carol McGarry was the top rebounder for the season.

Sas Spencer was the highest scorer with a point average of 29.9.

"Yes We Can"

Throughout the season, this was the girls' slogan. It was seen on walls, posters, pins and almost everything else. When the girls were asked about these three words and what they stood for, this is what they said—"It has to be teamwork and unselfishness." "Without teamwork, we'd never win."

Heart of Illinois Conference Champs.

Hard Season For Matman

This year's wrestling team was marked by one major disadvantage—lack of experience. Although underclassmen showed a good interest, there were only a few upperclassmen that participated. This is what Coach Munds attributed to Clinton's disappointing season. At the district tournaments held at Decatur, Clinton placed seventh out of the nine teams that competed. The total score for Clinton was 36.5 points. Wrestlers who placed in their particular weight group were Bart Miller, second place; John Cooper, third place; and John Werts, fourth place. Brett Miller won all but one of his four matches. The only wrestler to go to the sectionals held at Normal was Brett Miller.

A million dollars would unlock the door to happiness for most. Two seniors are odds on favorites to break the bank. Julie Weaver and Doug Coomer were selected "Most Likely to Marry a Millionaire." Doug is still in the safe counting his share.

Will these seniors someday own the John Warner Bank? The senior class has given the nod to Sheila Dyer and Eric Calhoun as the ones who will "Most Likely Succeed."

A ROUND OF APPLAUSE . . .

Several members performed vaulting stunts.

For the

Juggling skills were demonstrated by the clown and a fellow circus member.

Everybody loves a clown! This was evident on January 24 when the Gamma Phi Circus performed for Clintonites. Gamma Phi Circus is a fraternal organization composed of I.S.U. students interested in performing gymnastics. Eighteen members of the eighty-two member troupe performed various stunts. Highlighting the assembly were performances on the trampoline, unicycle, uneven bars, even parallel bars, mats, vaulting horse, and penny drop. The "big event" was an accidental pie-in-the-face with principal Mr. Glenn as the target.

HE GOT HIM! Mark Welch, an alumni of C.H.S., zaps principal Mr. Glenn with a pie.

Led by the clown, Mr. Glenn sets out in an effort to catch Mark Welch, after receiving the "pie."

Circus Came to Town

LEFT: Anne Welch, alumni of C.H.S., spots a fellow member performing on the trampoline. RIGHT: The clown needs Jane Welch to hold him down on the unicycle.
